Dorchester Resident Elected Vice President of the Board of Trustees at The Boston Home

Dorchester, Mass—Dorchester resident Karen Quigley was recently elected as vice president to the Board of Trustees at The Boston Home (TBH) in Dorchester. Quigley, an independent healthcare consultant, has served as a health systems expert in the United States, Russia, Kenya, Mongolia, the Philippines, and Africa. At TBH, she has served on the Board of Trustees for more than six years, and has also chaired its Strategic Planning Committee.

“Karen brings 25 years of healthcare expertise to her role at The Boston Home,” said Marva Serotkin, CEO of The Boston Home. “She will be instrumental in furthering our vision of providing excellent care to residents with complex needs.”

Quigley has an M.P.H. from the University of Michigan and a B.A., cum laude, from the University of Pennsylvania.

Quigley is a faculty member at the Boston University School of Public Health and teaches health care policy and financial management at Harvard University of Public Health. She served as a manager for Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Massachusetts, a consultant for the state Medicaid program in Massachusetts, and a general manager at Boston City Hospital. She serves on the Board of Directors of Vinfen Corporation, the Board of Directors of Urban Medical Group, and is Chairman of the Board of Ashmont Hill Chamber Music.

The Boston Home is an 84-bed, not-for-profit, long-term-care facility for adults with disabilities—primarily multiple sclerosis. It is the only facility of its kind in New England and one of three in the United States.
