MILTON RESIDENT NORMA HARRINGTON SPEAKS AT LABOURÉ COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT

— LABOURE COLLEGE ALUMNA RETURNS TO ADDRESS GRADUATES —

Milton, Mass. — Norma Harrington, LSW, RN, MS, MSN, a Milton resident, Director of Admissions and John Dystel Nursing Fellow at The Boston Home (TBH), recently addressed students at the graduation commencement at Labouré College in Dorchester.

Harrington, who received an AS in Nursing, Class of 1994, spoke about the importance of training and the rewards of her profession.

Labouré College is a private Catholic college specializing in Nursing and Allied Health. It is affiliated with Caritas Christi, the second largest health-care system in New England.

Founded in 1881, The Boston Home is a not-for-profit, specialized care residence for adults with advanced Multiple Sclerosis and other progressive neurological diseases. TBH is recognized as “the standard for care of adults with MS” by the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. It is the only facility of its kind in New England and one of only a few in the United States. The Boston Home Institute advances standards for care through research, training, and advocacy. The Boston Home Outreach Services provide therapeutic and social programs for outpatients.
